Everything you need to know about the Doctor's oldest enemy

The Untempered
Schism

Who is he?

The Master is a Time Lord. He grew up on Gallifrey with the Doctor and they were friends at school. When he was eight years old, he looked into the Untempered Schism and saw the Time Vortex, which made him go mad and run away. He has heard the sound of drums in his head ever since.

THE MASTER

Obsession

The Master actually enjoys fighting the Doctor, but he's obsessed with being best. He thinks the Doctor is weak because he likes humans so much. The Doctor always tries to show forgiveness, but this just makes the Master hate him more!

Deadly rivals

DID YOU KNOW?

The Master is more clever than the Doctor - he has a higher degree in Cosmic Science!

Death?

After the Doctor reversed time and cancelled out the Master's plan to enslave Earth using the Toclafane, his wife Lucy shot him. We watched the Doctor burn his body on a funeral pyre and that was the end of the Master. Or so we thought!

Back to life

The Master is brought back to life using the biometrical imprint he left on his wife, mixed with secret Potions of Life! Lucy uses a potion of her own to stop the process – but it's not enough to kill the Master this time!

Alive again!

WHOOMPH

We need something to make the contact physical.

Drumbeat

Alive again, the Master eventually learns that the drumbeat he hears is a signal that will bring the Time Lords to Earth to escape the Time War. They planted it in his mind when he looked into the Time Vortex as a boy, so his own people were to blame for his madness.

Mad and bad

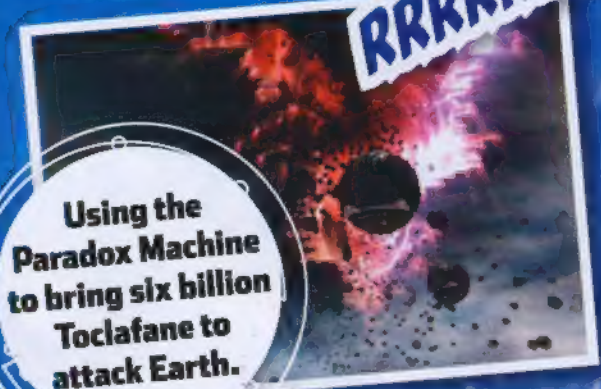

MEANEST MASTER MOMENTS

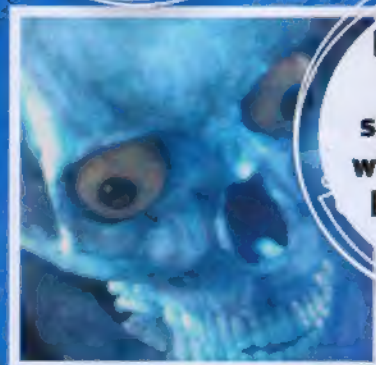

LOADS OF INFO EVERY WEEK!

RRRRRIP!

Using the Paradox Machine to bring six billion Toclafane to attack Earth.

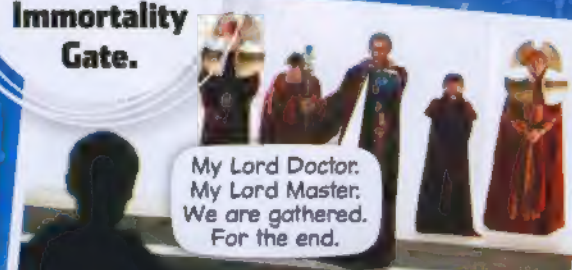

Morphing in and out of skeleton form when he comes back to life – freaky!

Turning the entire human race into himself to take over Earth.

Bringing back the Time Lords using the Immortality Gate.

My Lord Doctor. My Lord Master. We are gathered. For the end.

TURN OVER FOR MORE!

MASTER OF DISGUISE

Professor Yana

The Master was resurrected by the Time Lords to fight in the Time War, but he fled to the end of the universe and turned himself into a human. Years later, Professor Yana realised he was really the Master when he opened his old fob watch that contained his Time Lord self. He regenerated when alien Chantho shot him.

The Master
as Mr Saxon

DID YOU KNOW?

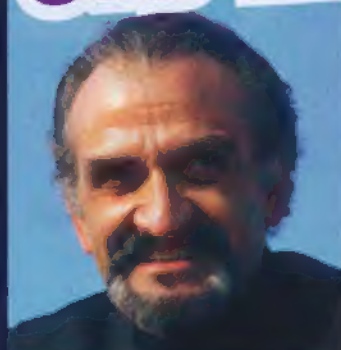

Just like the Doctor and all the Time Lords, the Master has regenerated many times!

Harold Saxon

The Master abandoned the Doctor on the planet Malcassairo and took the TARDIS to Earth, where he became Prime Minister Harold Saxon. He used the Archangel Network to brainwash the planet, and a perception filter to hide his true identity until he was ready to introduce the Toclafane and bring about the end of the world!

OLD MASTERS

The scariest-looking Master appeared when he was reaching the end of his thirteenth regeneration. The Master's body was ripping apart, just like it did in The End of Time.

The Master arrived on Earth and started many alien invasions! The Third Doctor once stopped him helping the Nestene invade Earth with killer plastic daffodils. Yikes!

After using up all his regenerations, the Master was executed by the Daleks on Skaro. But he survived and escaped as a gooey snake, got to Earth and stole yet another body!

On the planet Traken, the Master stole the body of a man called Tremas. This version of the Master caused lots of trouble for the Fourth, Fifth, Sixth and Seventh Doctors.

GONE FOREVER?

When we last saw the Master, he unleashed his fury on the Time Lords and they were all thrown back into the Time War. Will he be trapped there forever? Or can the Doctor's oldest enemy pull off another great escape? We'll have to wait and see!

You did this to me! All of my life! YOU MADE ME!

The chilly Ood-Sphere was the first alien world that Donna Noble visited. She got quite a fright when she spotted an Ood lying injured in the snow.

THE DOCTOR'S DATA

Vinvocci

Story

The End of Time, 2009/2010

Who are they?

Rossiter and Addams are a smart and spiky alien salvage team from Vinvocci space. When we first lay eyes on them, they wear shimmers, which make them look human.

What are they doing on Earth?

They've come to recover a vital piece of Vinvocci tech, the Immortality Gate. They discover that it has been stolen from Torchwood, so they pose as scientists to get it back!

How do they appear human?

Rossiter and Addams both wear wristwatches which activate and deactivate their shimmers. To their surprise, the Doctor's sonic also reveals their true identities!

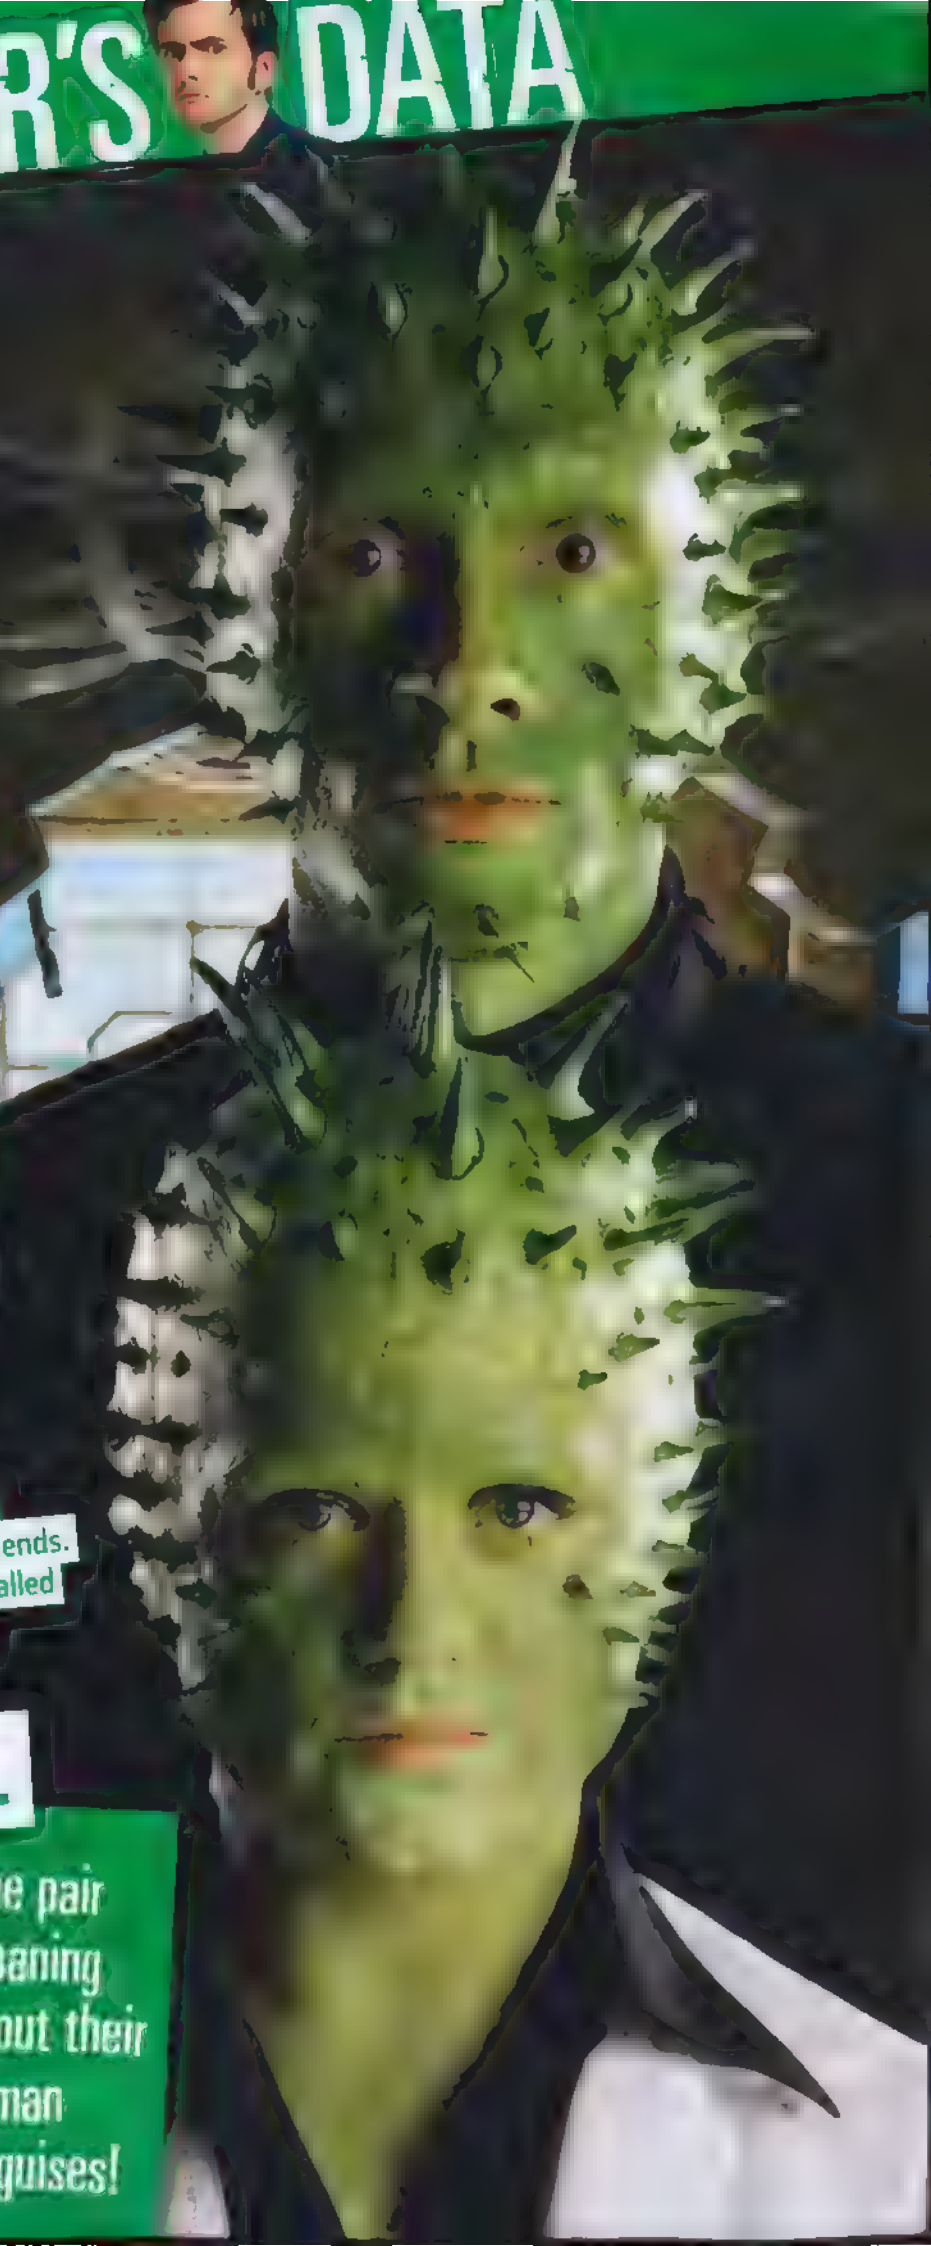

Are they related to Zocci?

No. They may have spikes in common, but that's where they say the similarity with Bannakaffalatta ends. They get very prickly about being called cacti, too, so mind your manners!

WATCH OUT FOR...

These people are so flat!

The pair moaning about their human disguises!

Who's WHERE?

THE END OF TIME

The Time Lords are back and they don't have time to mess about: In fact, they're so fed up with arriving late that they want to put an end to time itself!

Everyone wants to get their hands on the seven White Star Diamonds scattered around Joshua Naismith's mansion. The Doctor's been captured, so it's up to you to collect all seven diamonds and save the day. Just watch out for all those Masters!

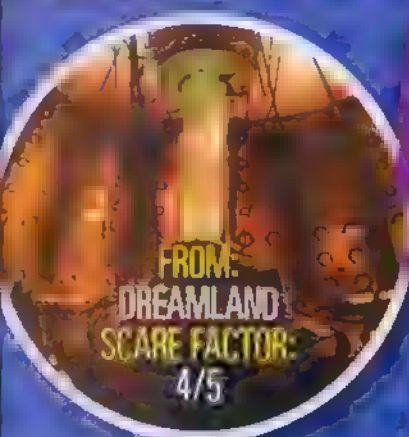

And they say Sontarans all look the same.

So which one of them am I meant to arrest?

how the Who team create an amazing animated episode!

Making Dreamland

First, the script is written. Then an animation team makes up a storyboard showing what every scene will look like. This is like drawing a very long comic strip!

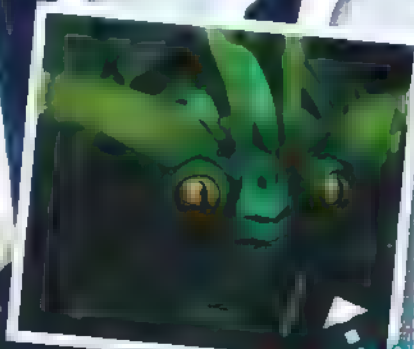

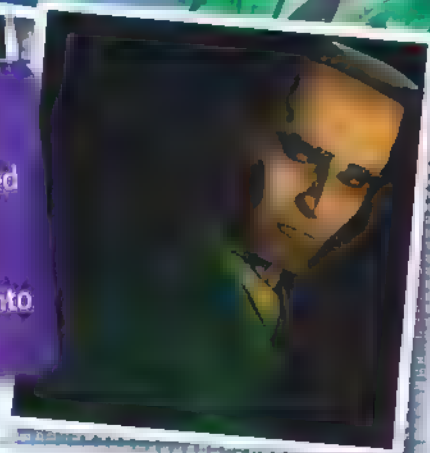

Next, the actors get together to record the voices. It's important to do this before the animation, so the mouths of the characters match with what the actors are saying.

How Colonel Stark was developed

Characters are usually drawn out by hand first. They're eventually turned into computer models that can move around. These are then added into different scenes.

STORIES

A seed pod travels across space at the speed of light. At last it has found a planet with 70 per cent of its surface covered by water. Planet Earth.

The pod cracks open as it hits the water.

SPLOOSH!

CRAK!!!

And the creature within stirs.

Aboard the research ship Deep Ocean 7.

This is the Captain. Time to head home. Reel in those nets and get the stock into the tanks.

Caught in the trawler's nets, the pod creature is ready to feed!

Months later...

Now - Las Vegas would someone think of

It's no ordinary aquarium - Deep Ocean

That is really, really

Nah, but he might be interested in the sound of fresh food. Just connect this loudspeaker and voila... Cue the whale song!

Brilliant. It's following us. We're almost at the exit.

Actually, it's catching us. Put your faoot down!

Heather steers across the desert sands.

Come on. Come on.

Suddenly, the Thalattth freezes.

Ha! The desert heat and the Sun's ultra violet rays are accelerating the Thalattth's life cycle. Its body is generating a chrysalis.

Like a caterpillar turning into a butterfly! Does that mean it's safe now?

The final form of the Thalattth, a Solarix Prizmatterfly, a creature literally made of stardust.
